

21. ACADEMIC INTEGRITY & POLICIES

21.1 What is Academic Integrity?

Acting with honesty, trust, fairness, respect, responsibility, and courage in all academic work. All students must complete the Academic Integrity Module (AIM) — failure to do so results in sanctions.

21.2 Types of Academic Misconduct

Type	Definition	Examples
Plagiarism	Using another person's work without proper acknowledgement	Copying text without citation; AI-generated work submitted without acknowledgement
Self-Plagiarism	Resubmitting your own previously assessed work without permission	Submitting the same essay in two subjects
Collusion	Working with others on an individual assessment, or allowing copying	Sharing answers for individual assignments
Cheating	Using unauthorised materials or assistance in an exam	Using notes in a closed-book exam
Fabrication / Falsification	Inventing or altering data, results, or citations	Making up experimental results; falsifying a medical certificate
Contract Cheating	Outsourcing your assessment to a third party	Paying someone else to write your assignment

21.3 Penalties for Academic Misconduct

Level	Conduct	Possible Penalties
Poor Scholarship (not misconduct)	Genuine lack of referencing knowledge; minor errors	Educative action; resubmission
Minor Misconduct	Small-scale plagiarism (10-15% above acceptable); minor collusion	Penalty from Academic Integrity Advisor; reduced marks
Serious Misconduct	Large-scale plagiarism; deliberate cheating; contract cheating	Fail the subject; exclusion from University without readmission
